IV. QUESTIONS

Any questions regarding this sealed bid process or the evaluation of Proposals must be submitted on or before Friday, October 30th, 2020 no later than 4:00 p.m. (AST) in writing via electronic mail to the following address: cedbi@aaf.pr.gov. Committee will not be responsible for, and Interested Parties may not rely upon or use as the basis of a claim against the Committee or a consultant of the Committee, any information, explanation or interpretation of the RFP rendered in any fashion except as herein provided. Answers will be issued by close of business on November 10th, 2020, provided such term will be extended, if shall be necessary, as the sole discretion of the Committee.

V. FILING FEES AND DEPOSIT

All Proposal must be accompanied by:

i. A non-refundable filing fee of $500.00, and

   ii. A refundable deposit equivalent to ten percentage (10%) of the economic offer or payment to be credit to the price, but not to exceed $300,000. Provided that $10,000 from such deposit of the awarded Proposal are non-reimbursable.

   Both the filing fee and deposit shall be payable to the AAFAF in bank check or money order.

VI. PROPOSAL FORMAT

Interested Parties are solely responsible for delivery of their Proposals and must fulfill the requirements set forth in this section and Article 8 of the Regulation. Proposals must be received on or before the Proposals Submission Date.

Proposals shall be delivered in paper format, one signed-executed original, two (2) copies and a digital copy in a PDF format downloaded to CD-ROM Disc, in a sealed envelope and must be duly marked with “Bid for Madame Luchetti School”. Also the presentation letter shall include the name, mailing address, electronic address and telephone number of the Proponent and the name of its authorized representative for purpose of any notification and the date and hour of bid opening must be shown in the envelope or presentation letter. The presentation letter or envelope must not contain any information related to the economic offer, otherwise it shall be rejected and disqualified.

Proponents shall provide a certification that the information submitted, and the Proposal are true and accurate, and that the person signing the Proposal is authorized to submit the Proposal (See Appendix 1). The submission of a Proposal will constitute a representation by the Interested Party that it understands every guideline, requirement, term and condition of this RFP and Article 8 of the Regulation.

As set forth in Section 6 of Article 8 of the Regulation, if an Interested Party submits more than one Proposal, neither one shall be valid nor considered by the Committee. Also, a conditional offer or Proposal shall be rejected by the Committee as set forth in the aforesaid Section. All Proposals must comply with the RFP and the Regulation.
VII. OPENING OF PROPOSALS

In response to the social distancing measures that have been recommended or imposed to contain the spread on the COVID-19 Pandemic, all Interested Parties that have timely submitted their proposal in accordance to this RPF and have satisfied the conditions and requirements of the Regulation will participate in real time through a virtual meeting of the bid opening where Proposals shall be opened by the Committee in a public session to be seen and heard by all attendees and to be celebrated on Friday, December 4th, 2020 at 2:00 p.m. Details for access to the remote virtual real time meeting shall be opportunely notified on AAFAF’s webpage. All Proposals will be opened and read aloud. The order used to open the Proposals shall be the order in which the Committee received each of the Proposals. The envelope must contain all required documentation to be considered. Any Proposal received at the place designated after the exact time specified for receipt will not be considered and will be returned to the Proponent.

VIII. EVALUATION AND SELECTION CRITERIA

a. The Committee will use one or more of the following criteria to evaluate, consider, rank, determine and select the Proposal to be awarded. In its evaluation, the Committee may consider all information contained in the Interested Parties’ Proposals and any other information obtained by the Committee. The Evaluation and Selection Criteria herein are not necessarily listed in order of importance. The Committee reserves the right to reject any and all Proposals at its sole and absolute discretion.

i. Payment or Economic Offer, which represents the purchase price for the Property to be paid at the time of execution of the Deed of Sale. Such Economic Offer shall include the following (but not limited to):
   - An official commitment for any financing arrangement must be provided in the Interested Party’s Proposal submission if it intends to finance a portion of the purchase price.
   - Verifiable documentation evidencing that the Interested Party has the available funds to pay-off the Economic Offer to the titleholder of the Property, or an official commitment letter from a reputable financial institution or eligible investor.
   - Interested Party’s audited financial statements (last two years, if available).

ii. The proposed time to close the transaction. Committee expects that closing will occur with full payment no more than sixty (60) days following the notice of award, unless it is extended by the Committee at its sole and absolute discretion.

iii. The appraisal value of the Property.

iv. The use or development plans for the Property which shall be guided by the criteria of best and highest use.

v. The economic and social impact of the proposed project on Puerto Rico.

vi. The promptness in the execution of the development plans and construction in the Property to prevent land banking and speculation.
vii. The proposed use of the Property and its integration with the urban and economic development plans of the central and municipal governments.
viii. The economic, social, urbanistic, or aesthetic impact on Puerto Rico.
ix. Any other factor that Committee, at its sole discretion, deems necessary and convenient or relevant.

b. Notice of Award. Based on the evaluation of the Proposals and the Evaluation and Selection Criteria as set forth herein, the Committee will determine the awarded Proposal. The Committee will notify the result, by certified mail with return receipt requested within a thirty (30) day term after the award and/or by e-mail, to all participants who submitted Proposals and to the government titleholder. The award shall also be published at the website of AAFAF.

c. Approvals. In all cases, the selection of the awarded Proposal and the execution of the Deed of Sale, or if necessary, a Purchase Agreement, shall require the approval of the Committee and/or any other mandatory approval as may be required in order to execute the sale or that is necessary prior to the execution of the Deed of Sale, included but not limited, to DTOP (as titleholder of the Property). Furthermore, the Committee and/or DTOP may define other specific clauses which shall be included in the Deed of Sale, or also adopt additional terms and conditions, or contractual clauses, including but not limited to, prohibition to sell, right of first refusal and right of repurchase, if the Property is not developed in an agreed upon timeframe to prevent a land banking or speculation, among others, all of which must be considered or incorporated in the Deed of Sale or in any Purchase Agreement to be executed by the parties before the execution of the Deed of Sale.

d. Protests and Reconsiderations. Any Interested Party adversely affected by a notified decision made by the Committee may, within twenty (20) days of the postmark date of the notice of the award, present a motion for reconsideration before the Committee as provided in Article 29 of the Regulation. Motion for Reconsideration shall be filed at the following address: Real Property Evaluation and Disposal Committee, P.O. Box 42001, San Juan, Puerto Rico 00940-2001, pursuant to Section 3.15 of the Act No. 38 of June 30, 2017, as amended, 3 L.P.R.A. §9655 (2017), known as the New Uniform Administrative Procedure Act of the Government of Puerto Rico (NUAPA).
Any judicial review must be filed in accordance with Section 4.2 of NUAPA and applicable rules of the Rules of Procedure of the Puerto Rico Court of Appeals.

A request for reconsideration, and any other protest, shall be in writing, and state the name and address of the requesting party, shall contain a detailed and accurate statement of the legal and factual ground for the request, including copies of relevant documents, and shall specify the relief requested. A request for reconsideration shall not stay the further action of the Committee related to the procurement process.

A request for reconsideration or other protest that fails to comply with the time limits or procedures stated above or provided in the applicable laws or regulations may be dismissed or denied without reconsideration. Judicial review of the determinations made by the Committee will be governed by the laws of Puerto Rico.

The Committee shall require from the requesting party the posting of a bond, guaranty or other security to cover any expense or damage that might be suffered by Committee as a consequence of the undue staying of the proposal selection process caused by the request for reconsideration and/or judicial review. The guaranty, bond or other security must be presented to the Committee within two (2) working days from the date of submission of the request for reconsideration or judicial review. Should it be determined that the request for reconsideration or judicial review was frivolously filed, or was based on negligent or malicious allegations, the Committee may foreclose upon such security. The guaranty or bond to be required shall be issued by a surety or insurance company authorized to do business in Puerto Rico. Security may also be supplied in the form of a draft or certified check payable to the AAFAF. The amount of the security shall be no less than $250,000.00.

IX. COMMITTEE’S RIGHTS AND DISCLAIMERS

The sale of the Property and the future development and/or use shall not be in contravention to the laws and/or regulations of the Government of Puerto Rico or Federal laws, rules and/or regulations. Interested Party must be responsible to conduct its due diligence to verify the permitted uses and development restrictions and limitations applicable to the Property. Each Interested Party shall accept and agree to assume any and all cost associated to the due diligence activities of the Property. Each Interested Party accepts and agrees to assume any cost associated to any and all necessary studies as part of the Interested Party’s due diligence activities.

The notarial tariff shall be borne by the Interested Party and the Notary may be selected by the Committee in accordance with Articles 25 and 27 of the Regulation, respectively. Also, the awarded party shall bear the costs of any documentary stamp to be cancelled on the original of the Deed of Sale, and the costs of any documentary stamp to be cancelled on the first certified copy of such Deed of Sale, including its recording fees charged by the Registrar of Property.

The Committee assumes no liability regarding the measurements and surface area of the Property, its tax property status nor any easement and restrictions covenants established and affecting the Property. Each Interested Party shall be diligent and solely responsible for conducting their own evaluation to understand the restrictions or limitations that could affect the Property or any development of the Property.

The Committee and/or DTOP may, at their sole discretion, record restrictions on the Property prior to executing the Deed of Sale to prevent a land banking or speculation.

The Committee reserves its right, in its sole discretion to: (1) amend or withdraw this process at any time, (2) withdraw at any time from this process with no recourse afforded to any Interested Party, their respective entities, shareholders, and/or partners, and (3) choose or reject any or all Proposals received in response to this process either on the basis of an evaluation of the factors listed in this document or for other reasons, including any reason that best serves the interests of the Committee, DTOP or the Government of Puerto Rico.

The Committee may enter into simultaneous or subsequent negotiations with Interested Parties that have submitted identical proposals to determine the final selection of the awardee. Committee reserves the right to interview key personnel of the Interested Party before the award. Notwithstanding the above mentioned, in compliance with the Regulation, in all stages of the RFP, the Committee shall be conducted in a fair and transparent manner to avoid any concern of undue influence, favoritism, preference or partiality in favor of any Interested Party. The Committee shall award the contract to the Interested Party that submits the most advantageous Proposal considered through an holistic approach.

The information contained in this sealed bid process and in any subsequent addenda or related documents is provided as general information only. ALSO, THE PROPERTY SHALL BE SOLD ON “AS IS, WHERE IS, WITH ALL FAULTS” BASIS. The Committee makes no representations, warranties, or guarantees that the information contained herein is accurate, complete, or timely, or that such information accurately represents the conditions that would be encountered at the Property and its vicinity, now or in the future. The furnishing of information by the Committee shall not create or be deemed to create any obligation or liability upon it for any reasons whatsoever, and each recipient of the sealed bid process by submitting a Proposal to the Committee, expressly agrees that it has not relied upon the foregoing information, and that it shall not hold the Committee, or any other third party who prepared a report for the Committee, liable or responsible therefore in any manner whatsoever. Furthermore, no warranty or representation, express or implied, is made by the Committee as to: (a) fitness of the Property for any particular purpose, (b) merchantability, (c) design, (d) quality, (e) condition, (f) operation, (g) compliance with specifications, (h) absence of latent defects, (i) condition or absence of hazardous or toxic substances, (j) absence of faults, (k) flooding, (l) wetlands, (m) utilities, (n) compliance with laws and regulations (including, without limitation, those relating to health, safety and the environment), (o) land area, (p) geometric configuration or topography, (q) quality and/or quantity of improvements, (r) access, (s) soil or subsoil, (t) groundwater level, (u) zoning, (v) structural damages, (w) construction or use permits, (x) any other permits, approvals or authorizations issued or to be issued by or needed from government agencies affecting, related to, or necessary for the sale or for the development of the Property, or (y) any other matter or thing affecting or related to the Property.

This sealed bid process has been prepared solely to solicit responses and it is not a contract offer and is not binding on the Committee. Neither the expression of any organization’s interest, nor the submission of any organization’s qualifications and any documents or other information, nor the acceptance thereof, by the Committee, nor any correspondence, discussions, meetings, or other communication between any Interested Party and the Committee, shall impose any obligation on the Committee to include the Interested Party in any such further procedures which the Committee may utilize prior to the final designation of an Interested Party or offeror, shall be deemed to impose any obligation whatsoever on the Committee to designate such Interested Party or offeror, to discuss any Proposals with any Interested Party, or to enter into negotiations with any Interested Party, or shall entitle any Interested Party to compensation or reimbursement for costs or expenses incurred by such Interested Party in connection with its Proposal’s submission hereunder. No costs of responding to the sealed bid process or any addenda or amendment thereto, nor cost of attending any subsequent interviews or meetings in connection with this sale opportunity, shall be reimbursed by the Committee or any department, agency or government instrumentality of the Government of Puerto Rico.

The Committee may consult references for any of the Interested Parties regarding its prior operations and development or management projects, financial plan, past performance, experience and qualifications, or other matters, whether or not the specific individuals are identified in the Proposals. Submission of a Proposal in response to this process shall constitute permission for the Committee to make such inquiries, and authorization to third parties to respond thereto.

Any information given to the Committee in any Proposal or any correspondence, discussion, meeting, or other communication between any Interested Party and the Committee before, with or after the submission of the Proposal, either orally or in writing, will not be, or deemed to have been, proprietary or confidential, although the Committee will use reasonable efforts not to disclose such information to persons who are not employees or consultants related to the Committee, except as may be required by laws or regulations of Puerto Rico. Use or disclosure of such information by the Committee may be made without obligation or compensation and without liability of the Committee of any kind whatsoever. The forgoing applies to any information, whether or not given at the invitation of the Committee. Any statement which is inconsistent with the foregoing provisions of this paragraph whether made as part of, or in connection with, any information received from any Interested Party or otherwise made at any time in any fashion and whether made orally or in writing, shall be deemed null and void and of no force or effect. The Committee’s receipt or discussion of any information submitted in response to this sealed bid process, including information submitted during discussions after said submittal does not, and will not impose any obligations whatsoever on the Committee, or entitle any such Interested Party to any compensation. Any information submitted in the Proposal shall become the property of the Committee. Selection or rejection of a Proposal does not affect this provision.

Neither the Committee nor any individual member, employee, officer, agent or consultant thereof shall be charged personally by any Interested Party or held liable to it under any term or provision of this sealed bid process or any statements made in connection hereto.

Except for questions on or before the date indicated in the Timeline, communications with other representatives of the Committee, AAFAF, DTOP or the Government of Puerto Rico regarding any matter related to the contents of this process are prohibited during the submission and selection processes. Failure to comply with these communications restrictions will result in rejection of the Proposal.
The Committee reserves its unqualified right, in its sole discretion, to disqualify any team, firm or individual from any phase or component of the process or this purchase and sale opportunity, due to felonious or other criminal record in any jurisdiction (domestic or foreign).

By providing a Proposal in response to this RFP, each Interested Party and each person signing on behalf of any Interested Party certifies, and in case of a joint venture each party thereto certifies as to its own organization, that the terms of its Proposal have been arrived at independently without collusion, consultation, communication or agreement, for the purpose of restricting competition, as to any matter relating to such terms with any other Interested Party or with any competitor; the terms of its Proposals have not been and will not be knowingly disclosed, directly or indirectly, by the Interested Party prior to the official opening of such Proposals, to any other Interested Party or to any competitor; no attempt has been made and none will be made by the Interested Party to induce any other person, partnership, or corporation to provide or not to provide a Proposal for the purpose of influencing competition.
